

BPIR - FAMILY GROWTH AND CONTINUING TO MAKE HISTORY

As we celebrate our 34th anniversary this year, you can just feel that 2018 is our year to continue making history and having an impact in each city we visit. I feel blessed every time I see the cowboys and cowgirls come together as a family. I am sure some people don't understand what I mean when I refer to us being a family. One definition of family is a group of people united by certain convictions or a common affiliation, which totally describes our BPIR association.

A validation that our family continues to grow is the fact we had the largest number of people joining our organization that ever before in January. I think it is always important to let each other know how much we care and value each other, therefore I would like to take a moment to say Thank You to each cowboy and cowgirl that is part of our family and supports the Bill Pickett Invitation Rodeo Association.

While we are not perfect, we strive to continue making improvements and I would be remised if I did not recognize our rodeo committee again. Thanks to Danielle Clark, Chris Hawkins, Carolyn Carter, Mikala Neely, Weyfus Tyus, Deon Osborne, Yattiska Gatson, Brian White, Tre Hosley and Ronnie Cunningham.

MLK RODEO DENVER

Our MLK Rodeo had a large impact on the city of Denver and the National Western Stock show by entertaining to the largest MLK Rodeo since it beginning 12 years ago. Why is this significant? It is significant because the heritage and story of Black Cowboys and Cowgirls continue to be told and exposed to people that have never heard it or experience it before. The Black Cowboys and Cowgirls are real and very much alive.

The community responded with such excitement and appreciation. I can't believe the number of emails and Facebook post from the attendees that just wanted to thank you and the organization for being part of the National Western Stock Show.

The rodeo did not disappoint anyone. There were many thrills and a few spills. I am sure no one will be surprised if I said that Billy Ray Thunder was one of the spills. After a nasty encounter, he got up and moved on, but Lamontre Hosely and Harold Miller found his spill as an opportunity to show what they could do. Lamontre took 1st place with Harold taking 2nd and both getting on the leader board.

In Calf roping, the competition was intense but Jarvis Demery didn't let that affect him. He was focused and quick allowing him to walk away with first. He was followed by T.J. Hewitt, Denell Henderson, Justin Dan and Steve Green. Despite the intensity of the competition and the great roping by all the cowboys, June Bug stole the show. He brought the crowd to their feet with a standing ovation. Did I say he made the front page of the local newspapers. All I can say, you older cowboys better watch out.

The Bull Dogging competition was just as intense as Calf Roping. Tory took 1st but Rodney Demery made his impact by taking 2nd and saying 'I am back'. Other winners included James Taylor, Darnel Tipton and Andrew Hosley.

The crowd was sitting on the edge of their seats waiting for the next event and the ladies did not disappoint. In the Ladies Steer Undecorating the ladies had quick hands. Dayna Carter and Megan Byrd managed to tie for 1st, followed by Linda Knight and Kanasha Jackson. In the Ladies Barrel Racing, hometown cowgirl Savannah Roberts showed how it is should be done. With youth and speed on her side, she ran away with 1st, followed by another Coloradan, Mikala Neely taking 2nd place. The 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th place spots were won by Danielle Clark, Denesha Henderson, Kanasha Jackson and Linda Brown respectively.

As we show cased our youth, the Junior Barrel Racers showed they got what it takes and they are on the tail of the ladies. In 1st place was Kortnee Solomon, Sadie Jackson in 2nd and followed by Savannah Roberts in 3rd.

The MLK Rodeo was about to come to an end and everybody was waiting for Bull Riding. The Bulls were jumping up and restless in the chutes. You knew before the riders started getting on them the bulls were not going to cooperate that evening. Needless to say, not one of the 8 Bull Riders were able to stay on for 8 seconds. The Bulls won.

While celebrating the 50th anniversary of Martin Luther King Jr. assassination, we wanted to leave a parting impression reflecting his desire that our world should embrace each other no matter color or ethnicity to build a better world. The lights dimmed and the story was told. The show was over and everyone was off to their next designation.

Welcome Weyfus Tyus As Part Of BPIR Staff!

I am extremely excited to welcome Weyfus as part of the Executive Rodeo Staff. Weyfus will serve in the capacity of BPIR Event Manager and will be working closely with Carolyn and Deon. A new team approach.

Congratulations Deon Osborne!

I would like to congratulate our own Deon Osborne on his rodeo (Midwest Rodeo) in Huntsville. He had the guts to step out on faith and do the rodeo.

Preparing for Memphis

As we were preparing for our Memphis rodeo in April, Sedgwick Haynes decided that he was going to take a different rodeo journey in 2018 and transitioned to his Heavenly rodeo home. What an incredible person, mentor and teacher he was and we will all miss him. While we are all sorry it took Sedgwick leaving us to bring everyone together, his home going was his way of bringing so many together. It was like a BPIR family reunion.

Sedgwick's Memorial

In Sedgwick's memory, BPIR will award an annual scholarship called the Sedgwick Haynes Memorial Scholarship to an upcoming calf roper who is interested in learning the event and becoming a calf roper. Details are being formulated as to the specific details of the scholarship and will be shared when finalized.

Life has a way of teaching us that time waits on know one. We must live everyday to the fullest since we do not know the time or day when it will end on this earth. I was planning to present a Life Time Achievement Award to Sedgwick Haynes on behalf of the BPIR in Memphis as a surprise to him.

While Sedgwick, will not be there physically, we will still present to his family. I ask everyone to join me in Memphis to present this award. While gone, he will never be forgotten.

Added Money For Finals Increased

Let me share what I think should be exciting new about the added money for the Bill Pickett Invitational Rodeo Finals in Washington, DC. The added money for 2018 will be increased to 25,000.

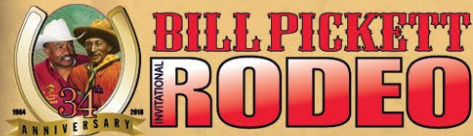

Memphis is waiting

Memphis is waiting for us and very excited about having us to return to their city on April 6th and 7th. Miss Kitty has made sure you will perform to a full house Friday morning for the Rodeo for Kidz Sake. I get excited about the RFKS because each of us get the opportunity to make an impression or impact the kids by teaching them about rodeo and that Black Cowboys and Cowgirls are real.

As you prepare for Memphis, I suggest and encourage everyone to read all information in this newsletter, especially the IMPORTANT AND A MUST READ section of the newsletter. There are some important things for you to know about the facility, required paperwork, slack and other activities for the weekend.

Thank you again for being a part of BPIR and I look forward to seeing you in Memphis. Travel safe!

Valeria Howard-Cunningham

BPIR SANCTIONED RODEO CHANGE:

Due to rule changes with the HIP HOP RODEO scheduled for Mesquite, Texas on March 17, 2018, BPIR can no longer sanction it as one of its approved sanction rodeos.

As a result of this change, please note that if you are a BPIR member, the rodeo and any monies won at the HIP HOP RODEO WILL NOT count toward BPIR standings for qualification for the BPIR Finals.

Thank you for understanding and unfortunately there is not a replacement rodeo to add at this time.

BPIR Rules & Regulations 2018

BPIR will use its own rules for 2018. If a specific rule is not covered in the BPIR Rule Book, the IPRA Rule shall govern.

Please note: There will be a $25 fine for anyone (other than BPIR staff) that are inside the arena when not performing. $50 for 2nd offense/fine. Stock charges will be $15 and 6% will be taken at all BPIR, MLK and Associated Rodeos from the total money for each event and a timer fee of $7 a rodeo.

New membership cards will remain at $80 for 2018 and renewal membership cards at $70 (2016 members ONLY). 2017 Rodeo Champions are exempt from paying membership fees. Seniors - 50 years and above must purchase a membership the 1st year for $30. All memberships are free afterwards as long as there has been 5 years of consecutive participation.

QUALIFYING FOR THE 2018 BILL PICKETT INVITATIONAL FINALS RODEO - TOP 10

TOP 10: To qualify for the BPIR Finals a participant must compete in one (1) more than 1/2 of BPIR rodeos including sanction rodeos in each event, prior to the BPIR Finals. If a rodeo event is not included in all rodeos, the 1 more than 1/2 will be based on the number of rodeos the event was included in. The one (1) more than 1/2 creates an interesting dilemma when there are an odd number of rodeos. To clarify, if there are seven (7) rodeos, the participant would have to compete in a total of five (5) rodeos (Example: 1/2 of seven is 3.5 and one (1) more would be 4.5; since one cannot compete in half a rodeo, the number required would be rounded up to the next whole number). If a rodeo event is not included in all rodeos, the 1 more than 1/2 will be based on the number of rodeos the event was included.

The top 10 point (money) leaders who are BPIR members and have met the rodeo requirement rule of (one more than half) will qualify for BPIR Championship Rodeo. The top 10 leaders in each event will be invited to compete in the finals for that event. Please note: The BPIR Finals does not count as a qualifying rodeo.

If a BPIR member competes in two or more events during the current rodeo year, they qualify for All-Around Cowboy/Cowgirl competition. However, mere qualification alone does not guarantee a spot in both events at the finals. For example, if a contestant is NOT one of the top 10 leaders in one of their events, they may not be a BPIR finalist in that event merely because they competed in a second event and/or won money in that event. Monies won in each event will count towards All-Around Cowboy/Cowgirl points.

If a contestant is invited to compete at the BPIR finals as an alternate and DID NOT compete in one more than half of the rodeos, he/she WILL NOT be eligible for year-end awards (i.e., saddles, buckles, etc.). Contestant is eligible to win Money ONLY! To be eligible for a BPIR Championship title, you must compete in the BPIR Finals.

Please note, Contestants will be grouped according to how they qualify to compete at the finals as follows:

- ONLY Group 1 (Qualified Rodeo requirements & earned money) will be eligible for Year End Awards.
- Group 2 (Qualified Rodeo requirements & No Money) will be considered Alternates
- Group 3 (Money & Not Enough Qualified Rodeos) will be considered Alternates.

Group 2 and 3 Alternates will be notified of the alternate position and must pay by the specified deadline to secure their position.

If there is (7) Relay Teams or Less, Each team will run both days (SAT & SUN) and both Performances (1:30 & 7:30) and paid on an AVERAGE of the combined times. If there is (8) or more teams, the relay race will be ONE RUN based on FASTEST TIMES. The Teams will be divided based on ODD Numbers running on (SATURDAY or 1:30) Performance and EVEN numbers running on (Sunday or 7:30PM Performance). In the event the Rodeo only has one performance, the odd numbers will compete in the (pre-show or 1st session) and the even numbers will compete in the (2nd session). The Relay pattern will be stakes prior to competing in a one run competition.

* Each contestant will be allowed to compete on TWO TEAMS ONLY. If a person is found to have competed on more the TWO TEAMS, ALL the teams will be DISQUALIFIED. ALL THREE TEAMS will be disqualified and NO MONEY will be REFUNDED.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR QUALIFICATIONS:

To be eligible for Rookie of the year, a participant must compete in one (1) more than 1/2 of BPIR rodeos including sanctioned rodeos in an event. The one (1) more than 1/2 creates an interesting dilemma when there are an odd number of rodeos. To clarify, if there are seven (7) rodeos, the participant would have to compete in a total of five (5) rodeos (Example: 1/2 of seven is 3.5 and one (1) more would be 4.5; since one cannot compete in half a rodeo, the number required to compete in would be rounded up to the next whole number). A Rookie contender must have a membership card and have not participated previously as a BPIR member.

GROUND MONEY:

If there is no qualified score or time in an event, the ground money will not count toward points.

BULL RIDING PAY OUTS:

Bull Riding will be paid on each go round per rodeo. BPIR Finals will pay each go round and an average.

- Non-members must purchase permits and the permit fee must be paid at the time the entry fee is paid.

2. THE PASSING OF THE BATON WILL OCCUR BETWEEN THE 4TH AND 1ST BARREL ONLY (i.e. the pass can't happen at the 4th, nor can it.
